ITALIAN OPERA-ACADEMY OF MUSIC. Last evening Mr. Gran's opera company performed

Racial's grand tragle opera of Saffo, to an audience which should have been much larger to welcome back again so admir able an artisf and one so popular as M'me Marietta Gazzaniga used to be. But New-York soon forgets favorites, preference, lasting only so long as the artists are present, and are renewed very gradgingly on their return after an absence of any length. The opera of Saffo contains the same very passionate and dramatic music, but its general characteristic is that of super-

Sciality. The orchestration is very brilliant, containing many new and pleasing figures, but its tendency is to too much noise; but it is underiably skillful, and by no means deficient in color-the finale to the second act being, in particular, im

Gozzaimpulsive, capable of making strong and striking effects, her electric power always excusing her shortcoming in finish. But now, while she has lost none of her grand pas-sionate impulse, she exhibits the style and fuish of a true and accomplished artist. She conceives the character of Saffo grandly, poetically, with yet the depth of a womanly nature. Both her acting and her singing were worthy the highest praise, and commanded that test of the merit, the involuntary outbursts of admiration. Her due with Madame Polini was as chaste and beautiful a bit of singlog as we have heard on the operatic stage for many months. Both ladies sang with exquisite grace and finish, and with that unity of spirit and purpose which is so rarely met i through with, and won a determined and most enthusiastic ncore, which was honestly deserved. Attempts were made to enforce the repetition of several of the motivos, but the Director did not permit the acknowledgment. In the finale to the second act. Gazzaniga was specially admirable. When she finds her lover married to another, the emotions of angulah, love and fury, as one by one they asserted dominion over her, were grandly and powerfully delineated, and were recognized by the audience by repeated marmurs of admiration, and by a unanimous recall before the curtain. In every respect, the a manimous recan before the curtain. In every respect, the performance of Saffe by Gazzaniga must be pronounced a decided success, and we most cordially greet our old favorite, who comes to us so wonderfully improved, upon her respect.

Mr. Theodore Thomas will give the last grand oncert of the season on Monday evening next, May 14, at Irving Hall, with the following solo artists: Miss Maria Brainerd, Miss Rose Eytinge and Mr. C. Petersilta, together with the chorus of the Mendelssohn Union and a full orchestra. The programme possesses unusual interest; it is, indeed, one of the most varied and interesting of the whole season. Among the selections are Beethoven's entire music to Goethe's Egmont, with recitations, Festival Overture, with chorus; Orchestra and Organ, by Nicolal; March and Chorus, from the Ruins of Athens, Beothoven; and Concerto in F Minor for pi n forte, by Henselt. There are many lighter pieces, which will form pleasing contrasts to the graver compositions. This concert should attract all those who really love fine music.

THE ANNIVERSARIES.

The American Board of Commissioners of Fareign Missions.

The Foreign Missionary Board held their usual meeting yesterday morning at Irving Hall the Rev. Mank Hopkins, L. L. D., President of Williams College, occupying Horkins, L. L. D. President of Williams College, occupying the chair. The andlence was not very large, but comprised many of the most emitism of the clerger and laity, interested in the greageanse of Foreign Missions. The venerable Father King, of Constantinople was, present but did not speak. The Rev. Dr. Wood, one of the Secretaries of the Board, presented a brief statement of its operations during the past year, of which the following is a portion.

The Board entered on the period of the late war with a deficit of nearly $2.500, and close it with a surprise of $1,147.85 in the Greas very. This happy result was second by the supprecedented liberality of its supporters, and a rigid enuncy in its submiddration.

The expeculiture of the last year was $2.50,00, 75. The appropriation, as made for the current year amount to $2.50,00, and the receipts in the eight months to April 20 are $2.50,00.

As its annual meeting in October last, the Board reported 20 organized missions, for central stations, and $21 our stations; 312 labovers sent from this country, of whom it's very ordained missionaries (five being likewise physicians, and four physicians not ordained, 762 native bloocers, of when 90 were organized ministers, and 281 preachers and catherinate. These figures show a diministers of 402 preachers and in the pastors and 61 other native abovers.

The priming in the Missions a little exceeded 37,00,000 pages. This ten transing and thesiopsical schools, is other hearding schools, and 34 free schools to the included in the Hewalius bloods, containing in all 11.242 purplis, indicate the educational work which they carry on.

The number of churches reported is 187 (an increase of 26 in for The number of churches reported is 15; (an increase of 26 in four years), with an approprie membership of more than 24,900. Of these 1,656 were added the last year. This addition was much below the sedmination of more than 24,900, and the sedmination of many years. Including there has in missions formerly but not now consented with the Board, the number received to their communion, on profession of faith in Carlat, in the 25 previous years, was 50,460, or an average of 2,195 for each year in that period. No general curvey of the fields of our missionary exterprise can come within the limits of this statement. We can only say, in the briefest terms, that it goes on when y, and many trains, in our West African Mission; that among the Zains in South Africas there is decided progress; that in Western and Southern India, and Ceylon, there is a steady advance; that bends the missions at Canton and Fohchan, we now have a mission in the north of China, with states at Therein. Pekin, and chack skeen—the latter 140 miles northwest from Pekin, and on the border of falonolia; that in the Hawaiian Islands the work of God vindinates need from strange appearedons by fruits which challenge examination the most evers, if it be only candid and intelligent.

The Parisidear them addressed the Assembly, dwelling particinally upon the mysterious ways in which the providence of God is manifested to His people, and the clearness with which we discern His overruling goodness after the occurrence of events seemingly dark at the time. We sometimes find it almost impossible to know whether God he upon one side or its opposite, or even both, until the issue be settled and He appears our Preserver, steadily leading the course of events to proclaim His plory.

The Rev. C. V. A. Van Dyck, D. D., of the Syria Mission, spok of the work in this country. Thus strange land has one opposite, or even both, until the issue be settled and He appears our Preserver, steadily leading the course of events to proclaim His riory.

The Rev. C. V. A. VAN DYCK. D. D., of the Syria Mission, spoke of the work in that country. That strange land has one language, but two religious. Sixty millions of people fransact all the ordinary business of life in the Asiatic tongue, of whom 54,000,000 or 35,000,000 are Mohammedans. The Gospel of Christ has been carried to 15,000 or 10,000,000 of 600 of these.

The Rev. Marshall D. Sandras spoke of the Ceylou Mission, with which he is connected, and gave an example of a Ceylonese bymn, and closed with the terase but effective appeal, "My Christian friends, come over and help us."

The Rev. Dr. Chowny of the Fourth-ave. Presbyterian Church spoke of the difficulties, the trials and self denials of the missionary in his field of labor. The critical and carping enomies of the Church often say that the work is an easy, an ide one, but he spoke from his own personal observation when he said that in the very easiest fields of labor the self-denial required was as far removed from any of which we here have conception as x, y and x are from a and b in the alphabet. Instead of contempt or criticism, these servants of the Lord need all the outcomy general that Christians at home can give them.

The Hon. Villiam E. Doods was the last speaker, and remarked the court are between the scene yesterday in the national hild, and the present scene, where the saving not of a nation but of the world Pas at stake. The speaker well is apportally upon the great need of this missionary work, and cryed it apon all who heard him with his necessoried eloquence.

The addresses were varied with singling, by the congregation, led by Prof. Harrivos. After the doziology had been sing the Rev. Dr. Kino pronounced the benediction, and the meeting adjection.

Exhibition by Pupils of the Blind Asylum.

The anniversary exhibition of the pupils of the New-York Institution for the Blind, took place at Irving Hall last evening. The hall was filled to its utmost capacity, many last evening. The hall was filled to its utmost capacity, many more persons being present than could be accommodated with seats. The exercises consisted of music, both rocal and instrumental, by the pupils, and recitation in natural philosophy, geography, and mental arithmetic, with reading by means of geography, and mental arithmetic, with reading by means of raised print. The resilutations displayed a degree of avoid interpretation of the various branches exhibited, highly creditable to the patience and intelligence of both teachers and pupils. Some of the exercises in mental arithmetic were really wonderful, evincing a power of concentration of thought, quickness, clearness and securacy, almost marveious.

The reading by reised print proved the wonderful delicacy of touch which may be nequired when that sense has to slipply the loss of sight. The music—songs, choruses and sole and concerted pisses—was very good and was generally applauded, and once or twice encored. In the course of the exhibition

Signor Musiani, though lacking somewhat in refinement and school, has a voice of telling quality and sings with much earnestness and expressive power. In the finale to the accoudate he eang up to Gazzaniga, supporting her to the fullest need.

Signor Antonucci was admirable as Alcandro. His splendid voice told out with fine effect, and he displayed much parsion and dramatic power. His acting, too, was spirited and energetic.

The choruses were fairly performed, and the orchestra played with accuracy and spirit, but it was lacking in delicage and color. The clarionet solos were played tastefully and with sentiment.

HOW TO PREVENT AN ATTACK.

In the presence of the Cholers, it behooves every family and Indiwidoal to be prepared for its approach and possible attack. The first and most important treatment will be by others than doctors. For it the disease prevails, physicians will be run down with business, gone away, or engaged elsewhere, so that attendance the first hour or two by competent physicians will be the exception rather than the rule The question is shall this treatment be intelligent, prompt and effi cient, or subject to whims, captices or accidents of the hour? Besides much may be done by proper hygienic observance in food, living and habits, and especially by the use of the proper preventives to protect the system and prevent an attack.

Why is Aslatic Cholera Facal? Why is Aslatic Cholera Faral?

Thousands apposed to die of cholera and other malarious epidemica are killed by insane medication. In the cholera season of 1849, patients treated according to the regular formula with brandy, opium, rhubarb and calomel, died in multitodes, while in every case where RADWAY'S READY RELIEF was promptly given the sufferer was instantaneously relieved and subsequently recovered. Why was this? Simply because this pecriess vegetable medicine is an equable climulant, disinfectant, counter irritant, anodyne, tooic, sudorific, and in
